Understanding Your Hair Loss Pattern

Hair loss presents differently in men and women. Recognizing the pattern helps HairDoc recommend a more targeted treatment direction during your online consultation.

Male Pattern Hair Loss

- Receding hairline
- Temple recession
- Crown thinning
- Progressive baldness

Female Pattern Hair Loss

- Widening part line
- Reduced hair volume
- Diffuse thinning
- Visible scalp at the crown

 Your shared scalp images may show signs that match an early, moderate, or advanced thinning pattern.

What Your Assessment Indicates

Your hair concern may be associated with one or more of the following underlying factors.

Weak or Miniaturized Strands

Thinning, fragile hair that breaks easily

Scalp Imbalance

Buildup, dandruff, or excess oil production

Hereditary Tendency

Genetic predisposition to thinning

Internal Factors

Stress, hormones, or nutritional imbalance

1

Early Stage

Mild hair fall, early thinning, weak roots

2

Moderate Stage

Visible thinning, low density, recurring hair fall

3

Advanced Stage

Bald patches, scalp visibility, progressive loss

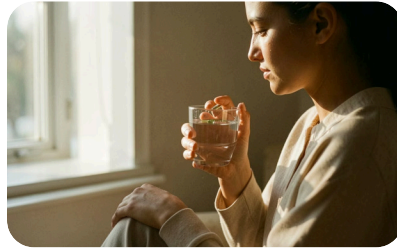

How HairDoc Helps
